- Vote totals may continue to change as provisional ballots, cured Vote-by-Mail ballots, military and overseas ballots, and ballots received on Election Day are processed in accordance with Florida law.

ELECTION DAY MEDIA ACCESS

Media are welcome at:

- Broward County Supervisor of Elections Headquarters
- Public Canvassing Board meetings
- Logic & Accuracy Test
- Public election operations

Supervisor Joe Scott will be available for interviews as scheduling allows through the Public Information Officer.

Press Conferences will be held at 11:00 a.m., 2:00 p.m., after election TBA.

COVERING POLLING PLACES

Allowed

- ✓ Interview voters outside the 150-ft zone
- ✓ Conduct exit polling without interfering with voters outside of the 150ft zone
- ✓ Photograph voters only with their permission
- ✓ Attend public Canvassing Board meetings

NOT Allowed

- ✗ Media activity inside the 150-ft no-solicitation zone
- ✗ Photography inside polling rooms or Early Voting areas
- ✗ Interviews with election workers or interfering with voting operations

Florida Statute 102.031 establishes the 150-ft no-solicitation zone around polling places. Media interviews must occur outside this area.

Exit polling is permitted outside the 150-ft zone only if it does not interfere with voter access and voter agrees.

Election workers may not provide interviews unless authorized.
