MEETING CONVENED: 12:00 P.M.

The meeting was called to order by Judge Melinda Brown at 12:00 p.m. Present were Judge Melinda Brown, Commissioner Michael Udine and Supervisor of Elections Joe Scott.

Pledge of Allegiance

A motion to approve the minutes of the previous Canvassing Board meeting was approved by the Board members.

Chief Deputy Mary Hall informed the Canvassing Board that 125 overseas ballots had been received and reviewed. The Canvassing Board members authorized the tabulation of the overseas ballots.

Chief Deputy Mary Hall further advised the Board that staff had visited the postal service earlier that day and that the ballots currently being processed reflected the mail received as of that morning.

The final certification reports were presented to the Board for review and signature.

Following the signing of the certification reports, staff proceeded with the presentation of the automated post-election audit. Kevron Aird explained the process by which the audit would be conducted between the two systems. The results from both systems were presented to the Board for comparison and verification. The Board then completed and signed the post-election audit form.

ADJOURNMET

There being no further business to come before the Board, Judge Melinda Brown adjourned the Canvassing Board meeting at 1:13 p.m.
